EDITOR’S NOTE

The Silver Lining

It is the most wonderful time of the year, and we all hope we are on Santa’s good list as Christmas shopping is underway.

The Gardens Mall is bright and cheery with its Christmas decorations to get everyone in the holiday mood. You will also find new faces including Bvlgari, Tory Burch and LORD’s 1974 if you’re in the search for that something special. There is also more reason for you to stop by the 6th Floor. Not only is it home to Sage Restaurant & Wine Bar, as well as Wei-Ling Contemporary but also home to Les Suites with Celest Thoi, theOccasions Eventeur and MunKeat Photography – a venue for all your wedding needs. The Gardens Theatre, now in its third year, has made the 6th Floor the ultimate arts and culture venue. With the opening of The Studio, a concept/lifestyle store dedicated to ASEAN designers and artisans, the 6th Floor has never looked better.

Change, good or bad, is inevitable... and so, we search for that silver lining. That was the subtle inspiration for this year’s fashion spread. ‘Grey Matters’ is really a completely opposite take from the jolly, colourful pages of previous Gardens magazine issues. Instead, Simplicity is the name of the game. There are still splashes of colour, prints and colour blocking, but brands including Hermès, Burberry, Prada and Emporio Armani show us that at the end of the day nothing looks more elegant than a black suit or a pure white dress.

Big thank you to CENTRO W Salon , THREE and Glitters Nails & Waxing Salon for their time and support.

Happy Holidays, be kind to one another.

A Diva In Every Woman

BVLGARI

Inside every woman is a secret diva, a sensual part of herself that sets her apart, shining innately and radiating with her own unique charisma. Enchanted by the magnetism and beauty of a diva, Bvlgari captures her allure within its Divas' Dream collection. Dating back decades, Bvlgari has been inseparable from the alluring celebrities since the Dolce Vita era, when movie stars discovered their love for the renowned Italian jeweller. Divas' Dream captures the glamour, exalts the grace and reflects the radiance of today's stunning divas. Immortalising the iconic women of our time, this season's Divas' Dream jewels are a dreamy tribute to female charisma.

In the stunning new collection, the diva within the woman is revealed, expressed by precious gemstones that are accentuated in precious metals and gemstones, carved into fantastical facets that express her every mood and style. Effortless in her elegance, the refined diva chooses the iconic Divas' Dream shape for its distinctive simplicity and sparkle. Smiling with her natural beauty, this diva can pair her jewels or not – as adaptable as they are unique – choosing from playful earrings or pendants, bracelets or rings.

When glamour is called for, the diva shows off her seductive, sophisticated side. Resplendent in the Divas' Dream design of her choice, she becomes the star of the night. Embracing the glamour of the iconic collection, her diverse styles, moods and attributes are reflected with the multiple facets of Divas' Dream. Each original creation reflects a radiant aspect of the Bvlgari woman – sophisticated, modern, classic, playful, dreamy – but she is always a diva. She is in constant evolution, never content to remain just one shade. Echoing the sensual parts of the female persona, Divas' Dream embodies the ultimate in Italian femininity.

Sense And Sensibility

HERMÈS

If there's a house which represents the core of the French establishment, it's Hermès. Artistic director of women's ready-to-wear Nadège Vanhee-Cybulski intuitively understands a woman's sensibilities and it shows through and through in this season's ready-to-wear collection. Rather than bend to fickle fashion, the looks are purer and simpler, with refined lines and fitted silhouettes for timeless everyday wear. It goes without saying that the leather and suede pieces are of unsurpassable quality. It's also not surprising that the atelier that's renowned for its use of fine leathers probably offers more luxe varieties than any other brand, setting the benchmark with beautiful materials to meet the different needs of daily life.

Blurred Lines

BURBERRY

Inspired by a reflection on the way a house changes its character over the centuries driven by the people, clothes and cultures that inhabit it, this season's collection combines noble and authentic fabrics, blending denim and sweatshirting with cashmere and pyjama silks. Blurring masculine and feminine, casual and formal, night and day, it's all mixed together to create a new reality born of all the moments that have gone before.

Highlights from the collection include deconstructed trench coats, regimental capes, coats and jackets, pea coats, pyjama-style trousers, shirts, shorts and ruffle-neck shirts. The Bridle Bag, a new runway design for men and women, takes its inspiration from classic British equestrian designs and Burberry's own outdoor heritage.

All About Accessories

SALVATORE FERRAGAMO

The fashion spotlight is shining brightly on Salvatore Ferragamo's latest men's and women's accessory collections. Each one showcases an assortment of products, from shoes and bags to scarves, textile accessories and fashion jewellery. When viewed, they are sure to make heads turn.

How Bazar

BALENCIAGA

For this season's collection, artistic director Demna Gvasalia has raised the profile of the functional market hold-all to the aesthetic levels of haute couture with the Bazar bag. The shapes and motifs of the everyday are rendered in Balenciaga's signature Arena leather and other luxe materials, all coloured in a rainbow of stripes. Just choose from an entire lexicon of accessories from runway totes to wallets.

Season's Giftings

MULBERRY

Get a head start on your holiday shopping by exploring Mulberry's Christmas and Gift Collection. It captures the excitement of the season with an inspiring medley of new colours and accessories, as well as the latest additions to the brand's iconic Bayswater handbag family. Dino-Mite
COACH

American luxury brand Coach celebrates its 75th anniversary with a colourful assortment of holiday gifts crafted in glove-tanned leather. The collection is headlined by the Coach Beasts, a pack of prehistoric mascots with their own unique personalities. These adorable characters appear on a wide range of leather bags and small leather goods, and are also available as charms. What better way to make a fierce (and fun) fashion statement than with dinosaurs?

Premier League
LONGCHAMP

Time stands still in the 1st arrondissement of Paris, the very heart of luxury and culture. Longchamp commemorates this Parisian district with a new iconic bag, the Paris Premier. Gently curved handles, brass hardware and impeccably crafted French calfskin recall a time-honoured luxury. Delicate hand-stitched details echo the heritage and authenticity of a city steeped in history. Discreet inner compartments safeguard the owner's privacy. Meanwhile the patina on the matte leather can only improve with age. Just like Paris...

Party Perfect
MICHAEL KORS

If you're getting into the glamorous party spirit for the holidays, Michael Kors has something perfect for you. Start the season with jewel-toned velvets and crystal embellishments. Plush, quilted leather satchels, slouchy suedes and sequinned clutches complete the finished look. It's a playful yet polished sensibility that innately suits the year-end festivities.

The L Word
LANCEL

Celebrating 140 years of creation and innovation this year, Lancel is reinterpreting the Maison's art deco motif. Called the "revolving L", the motif is intensified by Lancel red to convey the brand's image for this season – colourful and contemporary – in a variety of items including bags and jewellery.

Digital Life
EMPORIO ARMANI

Paying homage to the digital generation, Emporio Armani's "Up To Date" menswear collection features innovative materials and techno-tailoring with a sharp focus on comfort. For millennial women, the "New Pop" collection melds classic styles with digital designs to create standout pieces that also reflect Armani's signature aesthetic.

Disco-veries
kate spade new york

The spirit of disco is evoked throughout the holiday collection, in the graphic use of colour, sprinkles of shimmer and magical versatility of styles that steal the spotlight. Whimsical looks are embellished with florals, sparkles and jewel tones, with a playful punctuation of bows, balloons, bunnies and even dinosaurs. For a twist on traditional holidays, no one does it like kate spade new york.

Back To Beautiful
DIANE von FURSTENBERG

Sports Illustrated

TOD'S

The fashion inspiration behind the Italian leather house's latest Fall Winter 2016 collection is 1930s sporting elegance with a contemporary touch. Embodying TOD'S classic craftsmanship are headline pieces such as the high heel ankle boot and Double T bag. The collection's underlying style is natural and refined, embellished with saddlery detailing, geometric patchwork, tartan-inspired prints and irregular stitches. For a dash of Italian flair, you can always count on TOD'S to deliver.

In The Shadows

BOSS

The BOSS Fall/Winter 2016 Collection presents an artistic take on light and shadow. The juxtaposition of shiny and matte, textured and smooth, uses the impact of light on different surfaces to strike a distinctive pose. The BOSS tailoring DNA ensures that clean cuts and sharp silhouettes are the signature, with colour, detail and combinations heralding a new mood. Each German-made piece combines expert craftsmanship with cutting-edge technology for a look that's precise, masculine and sartorial.

Back To The '90s

DKNY

The DKNY designers just want to have fun. Revisiting the brand's nineties roots, the collection "celebrates the obvious while turning things on their heads and flipping them inside out". It also explores and deconstructs the brand's tailoring and pinstripes while playing with proportions of what people were wearing when DKNY first burst onto the scene.

To Infinity And Beyond

T.M. LEWIN

Combining top quality fabric, durability and a great fit, T.M. Lewin's new Infinity Suit is tailor-made to meet the demands of modern working life. The Rebellion

CALVIN KLEIN PLATINUM

Rebellious, subversive and sensual, Calvin Klein Platinum's Fall 2016 collections represent an empowering interpretation of the brand's iconic staples, which have been reimagined for today's generation of non-conformists. The look book is characterised by pre-millennium fashion influences with unexpected colours and fabric combinations.

The Show Must Go On

BCBGMAXAZRIA

The muse behind BCBGMAXAZRIA's Fall 2016 collection is a performer whose individualistic style reveals her artistic ingenuity. Enveloped in a rich winter palette, the collection expresses a whimsical and carefree aesthetic with shimmering knits and slashed leggings, concealed beneath linear silhouettes to amplify her choreographed layers. A patchwork mix of hand knits, raw denim and woolen stripes keeps audiences captivated while striking a balance between formal and informal.
